Spring 2026

Omega Nu Lambda Welcomes Spring 2026 Inductees at Point University

Point University is proud to announce the induction of its Spring 2026 class into Omega Nu Lambda, the national honor society recognizing the academic excellence and leadership of online students.

The following students have been recognized for their outstanding achievements and commitment to academic success:

Jonathan, Emma, Cannon, Rocio, Jessica, Matthew, Mirdjinah, Danielle, Marion, Abigail, Letitia, Ryan, Jamie, Jessica, Dustenalan, Paul, Taylor, Makenna, Micah, Antonieta, Dixie-Neil, Noeliz, Evelyn, Kenyata, TiJuan, Diego, Casee, Philip, Barbara, Joseph, Chasidy, Carly, Wyatt, Tanner, Rebekah, Jessica, April.

This year also marks a meaningful chapter for the Point University ONL community, as Chapter Advisor Katura Lesane embraced and led the program forward with dedication and care. Her leadership has been instrumental in supporting students and strengthening the presence of Omega Nu Lambda on campus.

Omega Nu Lambda celebrates these new members and looks forward to their continued success, leadership, and impact within their academic and professional journeys.
